

GMT

THE G. HALLEY MARVILLE TRUST

presents

BEYOND THE SILENCE

OCD Awareness Conference & Seminars

Lloyd Erskine Sandiford Centre

Day 1 – Aug 21

9:00 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

General Public, people living with OCD and learning difficulties (FREE)

2:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Parents, Family Members & Caregivers

Objectives

- Recognise OCD, possible triggers and its links to anxiety
- Recognise Developmental Disorders (ADHD & Autism) specific learning difficulties (Dyslexia & Dyspraxia) and their links to challenging behaviour and anxiety
- Provide useful strategies for supporting children and young people with these needs

Day 2 – Aug 22

9:00 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Teachers and Guidance Counsellors (FREE)

Objectives

- Recognise OCD, possible triggers and its links to anxiety
- Recognise Developmental Disorders (ADHD & Autism) specific learning difficulties (Dyslexia & Dyspraxia) and their links to challenging behaviour and anxiety
- Assist participants in creating individualised plans to support children with needs

Day 3 – Aug 23

9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Social Workers, Psychologists & Psychiatrists ($50)

Objectives

- In-depth look at Obsessive Compulsive Disorder(OCD) from a biological and systemic perspective
- Detailed exploration of OCD, its triggers and links to anxiety
- Successful treatment plans and pathways
- Highlight the benefits of a joint clinical practice approach

Register at ghmtrust10@gmail.com

Please indicate the specific session that you are interested in attending.

Facilitators

Mr. Craig Shirley
Integrative Therapist
OCD Specialist

Dr. Ysanne Marville
Educational Psychologist